

CALEB STEMMANS

Phone: 713-253-0505

Email: caleb@calebstemmans.com

SKILLS

- Passion to Serve
- Adaptability
- Analytical Thinking
- Communication
- Concept Application
- Neuro-Divergent Communication
- Technology

EDUCATION

- Kingwood Park High School, Graduated May 2023 (GPA 4.5/3.3)
 - NHS Member, SNHS President, HOSA Treasurer
- Texas A&M College of Engineering at Galveston, Aug – Dec 2023 (GPA 3.5)
- Lone Star College, January 2024 – Present (GPA 3.72)
- Prospective UT Austin Cockrell School of Engineering Transfer – Fall 2025

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

From professional to personal settings, proper communication is paramount to success. Experience in engineering principles applied in construction, customer service, and neuro-divergent programs and relations and has built an extremely versatile skillset that excels in problem-solving, critical solution applications, and technical communication.

EXPERIENCE

Engineering Construction Intern, Summer 2022 - 2024

Convergent Method, Houston, Texas

- Verified and documented general contractors' construction progress through digital documentation.
- Designed and developed a website that is fully functional on both mobile and desktop browsers.
- Attended, observed, and engaged in collaborative environments that focused on integrating multi-disciplinary ideas in construction engineering.

Adaptive Sports Assistant, Oct 2022 - Jul 2023

Lake Houston YMCA, Kingwood, Texas

- Supported young and adult neuro-divergent individuals and their families with their journey so that they may enjoy the beautiful sport of baseball.
- Fostered relationships and memories are second to none when it comes to character building and ensuring an understanding personality while interacting with diverse types of people.
- Assisted with recruiting and signing-up volunteers from local schools and organizations.

Membership Customer Service Representative, Aug 2021 - May 2023

Lake Houston YMCA, Kingwood, Texas

- Maintained exceptional member service standards, responding to email, telephone, and in-person requests within a professional time frame.
- Conducted facility tours to engage prospective members in benefits and answered wide-ranging questions.
- Analyzed and addressed various member issues by conducting thorough research and providing effective solutions.